

Programs at a Glance

The eight learning tracks are designed to give the convention broad appeal and to help you focus on the information relevant to your work. You are welcome, of course, to attend sessions outside your designated area to broaden your perspective on library work and services.

Note: Clicking on a program name will take you to the program description. Highlighted programs are 2 hour programs.

	Education	Funding	Intellectual Freedom	Leadership	Marketing and Product Development	Next Generation Librarians	Organizational Redesign	Service and Services
Wednesday 3:15 – 4:15 pm	Learning When There's No Time (or Money) to Learn: Managing Training and Staff Development	The Reasons NOT to Apply for E-Rate	Muslim Characters and Islamic Themes in Children's Books: A Muslim Author's Perspective	Ethics	The Wait is Over: Open Source Library Automation, All Grown Up	Look Before You Leap: Why Web 2.0 Alone Can't Save Your Library	It's Not Your Father's Health Insurance Anymore!	Improving Service to the Public: Cleveland Public Library's New High Demand Department
	Ohio Bullying Initiative							OPACs: Working For or Against our Patrons?
Wednesday 4:30 – 5:30 pm	The Ohio Public Library Statistics: An Introduction	Public Libraries are a Great Value: The Southwest Ohio Economic Benefit Study	Managing Rights or Managing Restrictions?	Managing in a Union Environment: A Panel Discussion		A Day in the Life—Reflections on Being the Director of a Small Library	Throwing Out the Books with the Bathwater: Why Libraries Are, and Why They Shouldn't	Serving Community Students Through Homework Help Centers
							Setting Up a Virtual Branch	Conversation Salons: An Innovative Lifelong Learning Program

Thursday 9:45-10:45 am	Public and School Libraries: Customers in Common	Fundraising Experts: Can You Afford Not to Hire Them?			Plethora of Project Possibilities: Preserving Local History in Ohio	"You Offer Me Nothing": Serving Next Generation Patrons	People Places: Designing New Libraries as Community Centers	Knowing Your Spanish Speaking Community: Making Library Services Accessible and Relevant to Your Unique Community
	Ready to Read Initiative: Surveying the Early Literacy Landscape (First Hour)						Inspiring Ideas, Enriching Lives, Creating Community: Our Mission Statement Comes Alive in Our Partnerships (First Hour)	Bringing in the Boys: Using Multiple Intelligences to Plan Programs that Appeal to Boys (First Hour)
							Wake Up Call: What Our Customers Are Trying to Tell Us...If We'd Only Listen (First Hour)
Thursday 11:00 am- 12:00 pm	Libraries and the Underground Railroad Bicycle Route: A New Path for Learning and Sharing	Pay for Performance: Merit-Based Pay Systems		Making Staff into Good Ambassadors	What Can You Learn From a Bookstore?	When I Grow Up I'm Gonna Be _____.	The Balanced Scorecard: A Strategic Planning and Management Tool for Today's Libraries	AV for the Challenged
	Ready to Read Initiative: Surveying the Early Literacy Landscape (Second Hour)						Inspiring Ideas, Enriching Lives, Creating Community: Our Mission Statement Comes Alive in Our Partnerships (Second Hour)	Bringing in the Boys: Using Multiple Intelligences to Plan Programs that Appeal to Boys (Second Hour)
							Wake Up Call: What Our Customers Are Trying to Tell Us...If We'd Only Listen (Second Hour)

Thursday 1:45-2:45 pm	Castles Against Ignorance: How to Make Libraries Great Educational Environments		Crisis Communication: Sound Like a Star on the 6:00 News (First Hour)	Developing Leaders with 360 Degree Evaluations (First Hour)	Is Your OPAC Fun?: Lessons from LibraryThing (Program offered twice)	Slaying Dragons: The Pros and Cons of Offering a Teen Dungeons and Dragons Program and How to Run a Campaign	You Want it When?!: Meeting the Challenge of 48-hour Turnaround in Technical Services	Now Hear This! Behind the Scenes in the Audiobook Studio
	Protect Yourself, Protect Your Patrons					Go Where They Are: Reaching Out to Students, Parents, and Schools in the Online Environment	Library 2.0 in Action (First Hour)	Trading Spaces: Almost a Year of Living with Revamping Library Environments and Merchandising the Collection
								Building Bridges for Effective Business Services to Patrons (First Hour)
Thursday 4:15-5:15 pm	You're the Expert—Share It!: On-the-Job Training at Your Library		Crisis Communication: Sound Like a Star on the 6:00 News (Second Hour)	Managing and Understanding Your Building Project	Getting the Building You Really Want!	Pimp My Library	Making the Grade	Ring the Bell...In Your Community
				Developing Leaders with 360 Degree Evaluations (Second Hour)			Library 2.0 in Action (Second Hour)	Web Site Casting: Netting Bigger, Better, More Diverse Audiences
								Building Bridges for Effective Business Services to Patrons (Second Hour)
Friday 9:45-10:45 am	Public Libraries and Public Schools: How to Reconnect, or "Whadda You Mean You Don't Have Time for a Class Visit from the Library?"			Learning in the Workplace: Motivation in 21 st Century Libraries	Is Your OPAC Fun?: Lessons from LibraryThing (Program offered twice)	Get Your Game On: The Logistics of Bringing it to Your Library	Re-Automated—Moving Up, Moving Over, Moving Out	What Can We Do For You?

	Telling the Story of Story Hour: Building a Learning Community Through Experiences, Images, and Words (First Hour)			Making Trustees into Good Ambassadors			Taking It Home and Making It Work (Program offered twice)	When Traditional Institutions Provide Services to Non-traditional Populations: The Slate Hill Elementary School Experience
							Workforce Planning and Reorganization	Get Your ImaginOn! Creating a New Generation of Library Services for a New Generation of Library Users (First Hour)
Friday 11:00 am- 12:00 pm	Ready to Read Initiative: Taking it Home			Learning Styles 101 for Supervisors, Peer Trainers and Public Service Staff	Do You Know Who Your Patrons Are?	Gaming at MY Library?	Competencies— How Libraries are Using them with Success!	Foundation Center Resources for Grantseekers
	Telling the Story of Story Hour: Building a Learning Community Through Experiences, Images, and Words (Second Hour)					Girls, Guys, Goths, Googlin', Gangs and Groups: Serving all Teens	Taking It Home and Making It Work (Program offered twice)	One Card/Two Libraries— Academic and Public Library Collaboration
								Get Your ImaginOn! Creating a New Generation of Library Services for a New Generation of Library Users (Second Hour)