

Southeast Chapter Annual Report

Chapter: Southeast

Completed By: Bridget Dougherty

E-mail: doughebr@oplin.org

Chapter Conference date and location: April 2, 2009 at the Ohio University Inn in Athens, Ohio.

Number of attendees: 43

Number of programs presented: 25

Highlights: The breakout sessions had a very positive evaluation. Overall people found them entertaining and informative. The most well received programs were Non-Fiction R.A., Programming 101, Who is Rita Book?, and RU GR8 @ ECRR. Luncheon speaker, author Sandra Gurvis, presented us with a slide show and spoke on her book "Ohio Curiosities." Also during lunch, the Action Council drew for door prizes collected from vendors.

Other Activities: N/A

Comments/Suggestions: Topics suggested for future conferences included genealogy, readers advisory, and dealing with budgets cuts. The suggestion was also made that the location of the conference be moved back to Zanesville.
