

Awards and Honors 2008-2009

The Ohio Library Council's 2008-2009 Awards and Honors program gives you the opportunity to recognize extraordinary people and organizations for their support of and leadership in the Ohio library community. These leaders continue to make Ohio's libraries success stories, as they work hard to provide access to information to every person in Ohio.

Award recipients are chosen by the OLC's Awards and Honors Committee based on nominations and recommendations received from the Ohio library community. Recipients will be recognized during an awards ceremony at the 2009 Convention and Expo on October 21-23, 2009 in Cleveland.

Awards and Honors category descriptions and criteria are on the reverse side.

The descriptions, criteria, and nomination form are available on the OLC Web site (www.olc.org/awards.asp).
