Privacy Discussion Questions

- What does privacy mean to you?

- Are you aware of how seriously librarians take privacy and patron confidentiality?

- What are some general types of information that someone may want to keep private?

- How much do you require in return before providing private information?

- How much confidence do you have that information that you provide will not be shared or sold?

- Does anyone truly have "nothing to hide"?

- Do you feel that there are any risks involved with providing your information?

- How much of your life are you comfortable sharing online?

- How do you think having your privacy invaded would feel like?

- What is the difference between security and privacy?

- What is the difference between secrecy and privacy?